

How to log into

1. Visit www.flocabulary.com/join-class

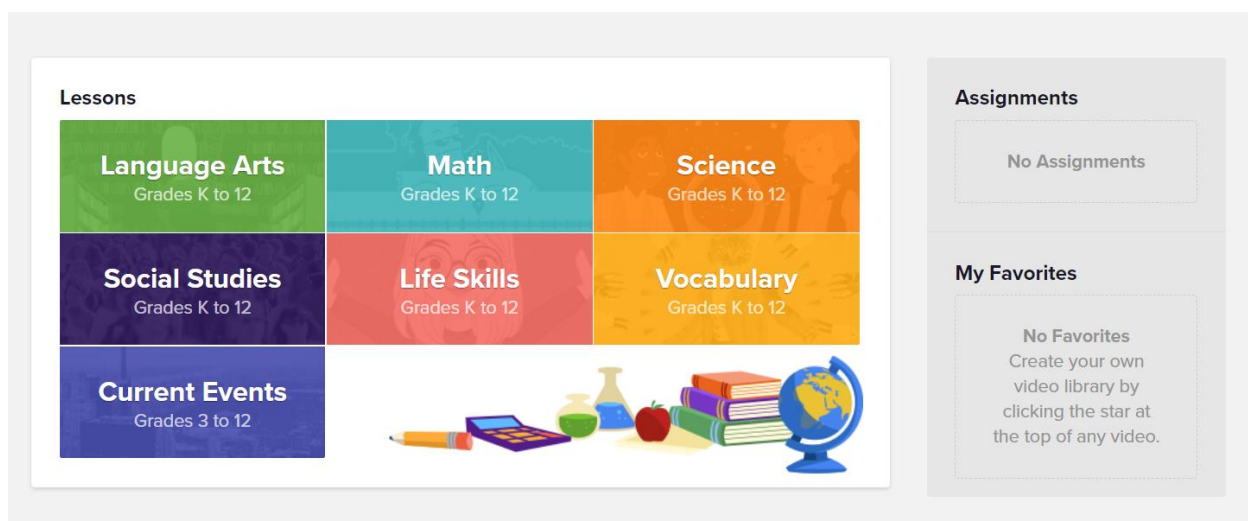

2. (the screen below should come up)

The screenshot shows the 'Join Class' page with three numbered steps:

- Step 1: A 'Class Code' input field containing 'R3HFDQ' and a 'Submit' button. A callout box points to the code with the text: "Class code is R3HFDQ".
- Step 2: A message: "You only need one Flocabulary account for all of your classes." Below it are two radio buttons: "I'm new to Flocabulary." (checked) and "I already have a Flocabulary account." A callout box points to the first option with the text: "Click 'I'm new to Flocabulary'".
- Step 3: A sign-up form titled "Sign up to create your account." with fields for Username, Password, First Name, and Last Name. Callout boxes point to each field with the following text: "Lunch number" (for Username), "Lunch number" (for Password), "Type your real first name so I know who you are" (for First Name), and "Real last name" (for Last Name).

3. Complete assignments located here!

The dashboard is divided into two main sections:

- Lessons: A grid of six colored boxes representing different subjects: Language Arts (Grades K to 12), Math (Grades K to 12), Science (Grades K to 12), Social Studies (Grades K to 12), Life Skills (Grades K to 12), and Vocabulary (Grades K to 12). Below the grid is a 'Current Events' box (Grades 3 to 12) and an illustration of school supplies including a pencil, eraser, paper, books, a globe, and a globe.
- Assignments: A section titled "Assignments" with a dashed box containing the text "No Assignments".
- My Favorites: A section titled "My Favorites" with a dashed box containing the text "No Favorites" and the instruction: "Create your own video library by clicking the star at the top of any video."
